We sometimes hear the advice given when great moral issues are at stake:

vote as you pray," and a man should vote is he praye. That means he should vote for clean, capable, God-fearing men. And Christians should live as they pray. When we pray that God's will may be done on earth as it is in heaven, we should try first to have that prayer answered in our wan hearts and in our lives."
That is a beautiful sentiment and as eloquently expressed as it is possible for language to express it.—Rev. J. F. Williams, of the First Baptist church.
